

CESAR workshop Experimental economics and theory

June 13-14 2024

Hosted and organized by the CESAR/Department of Economics
BI Norwegian Business School

Local contacts:

Kristin Svanekjær Grigson (kristin.s.grigson@bi.no , +47 90 14 05 75)

Tom-Reiel Heggedal (tom-reiel.heggedal@bi.no , +47 46 41 05 39)

Thursday 13 June

We meet at BI Norwegian Business School room A2-Red 10

12.00 – 13.00	Lunch at BI Canteen (7 th floor)
13.00 – 13.45	Jean Paul Rabanal Sobrino (University of Stavanger): ETF Indexing Strategies and Asset Prices: Experimental Evidence
13.45 – 14.30	Nathan Hancart (University of Oslo): The Optimal Menu of Tests
14.30 – 14.45	Coffee break
14.45 – 15.30	Eleonora Freddi (Telenor): Information Avoidance and Privacy: the Role of Entertaining Content
15.30 – 16.15	Espen R. Moen (BI Norwegian Business School): Fear of Collusion
16.15 – 16.30	Coffee break w/snack
16.30 – 17.15	Tore Ellingsen (Stockholm School of Economics): A Model of Social Duties
19.00 –	Dinner at xxx

Friday 14 June

We meet at BI Norwegian Business School room A2-Red 10

09.00 – 09.45	Magnus V. Knutsen (BI Norwegian Business School): Product Ratings and Externalities
09.45 – 10.30	Topi Miettinen (Hanken School of Economics): Prices outperform quantities in reciprocal climate agreements with “just deserts”-threats
10.30 – 10.45	Coffee break w/snack
10.45 – 11.30	Olga A. Rud (University of Stavanger): Trade, Voting, and ESG policies: Theory and Evidence.
11.30 – 12.15	Thomas De Haan (University of Bergen): Longevity Beliefs Elicitation: Full Distributions and Visual Support.
12.15 – 13.15	Lunch at BI Canteen (7 th floor)
13.15	End workshop